Auditor Jennings discussed with the Board about adding a land use easement to the 3-acre lot that the Board is proposing to allow Crisis Canines to build a facility on located by the old ARL building. This would allow for clear boundary lines and would also be incorporated in with the signed lease agreement. Lowry Land Services presented an agreement for the work if the Board decided to move in that direction.

Motion by Nearmyer, seconded by Cupples to approve a professional service agreement with Lowry Land Services in the amount of $2,650.00 to map out a land use easement for Crisis Canines.
